RESOLVING YOUR COMPLAINT

The Bank believes in developing long-term relationships with all its customers. The Bank understands that to maintain such relationships, it is necessary to address and resolve all problems or concerns of its customers, which may arise during business, in a consistent, timely and satisfactory manner.

Please follow the following steps if you have any concern or complaint about the product or services provided by the Bank.

Step One: Contact your branch

If you have any concern or complaint about a product or service offered by Bank, you can speak directly with the branch managers at the branch where you conduct your business. The branch managers at our branches have the authority to resolve majority of concerns that may arise during your day-to-day business with the branch. They will do their best to resolve your concern and provide a response to you within 14 days; however, additional time might be required to resolve complex complaints that are beyond their control.

Step Two: Contact Complaint Handling Officer

If the branch is unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, you may contact Bank's Complaint Handling Officer. The Complaints Handling Officer will do his/her best to resolve your complaint and convey the decision of the Bank within 30 days from the date of the complaint being referred; however, additional time might be required to resolve complex complaints that are beyond their control.

You can obtain a status update of your complaint any time by writing to the Branch Head or the Complaints Handling Officer.
